

LINDBERGH'S ROMANCE

WORDS AND MUSIC BY
GERDA T. HARTSHORN

GERDA T. HARTSHORN
339 DWIGHT ROAD
SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

Lindbergh's Romance

Chord

Words & Music by

GERDA T. HARTSHORN

INTRO.
Moderato

One balm - y night our
A - mongst the clouds they

Lin - dy sat, Be - side his girl so fair, The hid a - way, Their hearts then asked just why, The twi - light set - tled up - on the sky, There were blos - soms ev - 'ry where, The moon was pale and they dreamed a - way, Neath the blue and star - y sky, His clouds rolled by the night was still, The spring dew in the air, The first one "we" and sec - ond "we," With just one tie to bind, The night - in - gale and the lark kept time sing - ing car - ols here and there.

col - onel smiles as he waves good-bye to the maid - ens left be - hind.

CHORUS

On - ly in the moon - light, on - ly in the moon - light,

Could they plan their hon - ey - moon, Hap - py, hap - py mo - ments, hap - py, hap - py mo - ments while they'd sit and croon,

Man - y, man - y eve - nings, man - y, man - y eve - nings,

They were stroll - ing down the lane, And there they were list' - ning, and there they were list' - ning to na - ture's re - frain.

While she whis - pers soft - ly, while she whis - pers soft - ly,

He just longs for her to know,

On - ly for his An - ne, on - ly for his An - ne

1 would his heart a - glow, 2 would his heart a - glow.

